About National Council of Jewish Women, Essex County Section

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms. With more than 3,200 members, the Essex County Section is the largest of the more than 90 NCJW Sections around the country. The Section was founded in 1912 and maintains offices in Livingston, N.J. A FAITH IN THE FUTURE.
A BELIEF IN ACTION.

WHAT INSPIRES YOU?

ADVOCACY

Get involved in progressive causes including menstrual equity, reproductive rights, and gun violence prevention. Our Advocacy-in-an-Hour program is a great way for individuals with limited time but unlimited passion to make a difference.

HELPING CHILDREN

Help a child select new clothes and school gear at the annual Back 2 School Store, or volunteer to manage and maintain a Kids Emergency Closet at a local elementary school.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Support important community services through social events and gatherings including the Canasta, Bridge and Mah Jongg Party, the NCJW/Essex Golf Invitational, and the Fall Gala.

ONE-TIME VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Make a difference one community service event at a time! Volunteer at the annual Back 2 School Store in the summer or participate in one of our Mitzvah-in-a-Minute events which occur throughout the year.

HELPING WOMEN

Help women become job-ready through skills workshops, resume writing, workplace wardrobe assistance and self-esteem classes at the Linda and Rudy Slucker NCJW/Essex Center for Women.

PROGRAMMING

Meet new people and share ideas at inspiring programs such as Opening Event, Books and Bites, Politics and Pastry. Participate in exciting day trips and innovative classes and workshops.
